Term 3 seems like it's a long way away from the end of the year, but this is the term I like to think of as the "future term" – where students, families, teachers and the timetable generator start looking at career choices and electives for next year. It's a stressful time, but also the most exciting. I'd like to thank all the teachers and families involved in our Information Nights and Course Counselling Days, and hope that our students are happy with the pathways they are taking.

Year 8s going into Year 9 in 2019 will be making their subject choices shortly, so please look out for the information coming home with your children.

Following on from this, our Year 10 Careers Day was a great success. Feedback from the police force presentation was very positive. With a lot of interest in the expectations to even apply. It would be great for families to regularly discuss career paths, as this helps students focus on their schooling and goals. Remember that our Careers and Pathways Leader – Tracie Moore, can always be contacted for further information and support.

This term has also been a great time for our students learning off-site – with selected Year 7-9s being a part of the maths competition, Year 8's looking at the heritage of the CBD and Year 9s heading to Sovereign Hill to immerse themselves in Australian history. I watched the excited Year 7s heading off to camp this morning and look forward to hearing their stories when they return.

Tickets to our production of MacBeth are now available on Try Booking. Our students have been working with Western Edge Youth Arts (WEYA) to update the script and modernise the performance. It will be showing in Amadeus on the 19th and 20th of September – tickets are $5 for Students and $10 for Adults. Please be aware that tickets are limited.
