Indigo Wolf Uniform Ordering

There are still 5 days to order Indigo Wolf Sports Uniforms (Secondary students only.) Orders can be placed online via the link below:

<https://indigowolf.com.au/manor-lakes-secondary-college/>

The cut off is August 21st and stock will be delivered to the College between 8th - 12th October.

This will be the last opportunity to place an order for 2018.

Supported Learning Assembly

Supported Learning students invite you to join them at assembly this Friday afternoon from 2.30 – 3.00 in Amadeus Hall. You will be entertained by a dance performance by a mix of students from various classrooms.

Working Bee

A working bee will be held on Saturday, 25th August, from 9.00am - 12.00pm. After we have finished promptly at 12.00, drinks and snack will be available for all participants.

Tasks will include:

- planting trees and shrubs around the new secondary soccer and volleyball courts.
- planting trees between the Dalaroo and the Dove buildings
- picking out the rocks and stones from the fill added to the primary school playing field in preparation for top dressing the fresh dirt. Grass seed will be spread later in the week over the field with the hope of opening the area with soccer and football goals at the beginning of 2019.

Anyone able to help will be much appreciated. It would be great to have some of our secondary students and family members attend to plant around the new soccer fields with the intention of providing wind breaks and shade in future years. The trees in the ditch between Dalaroo and Dove are designed to be the first step in developing an urban forest leading to the lake and the eventual beautification of the lake area. The primary playing fields have been nearly unusable with the presence of rocks/floaters at the surface. The ten to twenty centimetres of fill to be topped with a few centimetres of loam will provide a fairly level surface and minimal exposed rock to damage knees and legs.

If you are able to assist on the day, an email to me would be much appreciated to assist with catering and purchasing of materials for the day.

FOCUS ON CAREERS OF THE FUTURE

By the time you graduate from a degree or an apprenticeship, there will be many new jobs that haven't even been invented yet.

Technology expansion is rapid and who knows what jobs will be advertised in 10 years time, let alone 50?

According to a La Trobe University video featuring their Bachelor of Arts degree, by 2030 2 Billion jobs will be obsolete, <http://bit.ly/1MBqTW0>

They will be replaced by ones that don't exist yet. The video also suggests you will have approximately 10 careers in your lifetime.

This doesn't mean changing employers 10 times, this means different occupations. So, you may start out as a builder and then move on to teaching and then to nursing.

The message of the video is that you have to be able to adapt as the world changes. You will need to continually work on developing your personal skills such as communication, team work, and problem solving.

You will also need to commit to lifelong learning to have up to date skills and to be competitive in the job market. So you may complete a university degree, then a TAFE qualification, then short courses, then a graduate university course and then more short courses.

There is no right or wrong way of doing things, but you need to be flexible and adaptable when it comes to change, because if there is one thing you can be 100% sure of, there will be lots of it.

Amy Zuckerman is a journalist. She developed futuristic job advertisements for several technology careers, including:

- Personal Virtual-Presence Agent
- Automotive Hybrid and Fuel-Cell-Vehicle Research Engineer
- Exobiologist to Study Alien Life-Forms
- Senior Biocomputing Engineer
- Digital Matchmaker
- Gene Diagnostician

Read the advertisements here - <http://bit.ly/1RIxuMa>

If you think they sound far-fetched, just remember that it wasn't so long ago that Facebook didn't exist, we couldn't access the internet via our phone, and blue tooth and cloud computing didn't exist.

We now have courses that focus on

- Global security and terrorism
- Genetic counselling
- Geomatics
- Human interface technology
- Renewable and 'green' energies
- iPhone & iPad App development, and
- Social analytics and data science

Apprenticeship, TAFE and university courses will evolve and develop as technology and our society evolves. The future is very bright and the world is certainly your oyster!

Futurist Morris Miselowski predicts that by 2050, 60% of people will be doing jobs that don't currently exist. He predicts we could be working in jobs such as:

- Transhumanist Designer/Engineer
- Nano Medic
- Memory Augmentation Surgeon
- Ethics Lawyer
- Weather Controller
- Spaceport Traffic Control

He believes that many jobs will focus on technology and the human body- improving health and extending human life, <http://bit.ly/RN7wip>

Whilst many of these jobs focus on science and technology, all jobs will be affected and will either become obsolete or undergo significant changes.

Whilst in school, it is crucial that you engage in your studies and keep an open mind about the future. What you aim to be doing in even 5 years, may not be what you will actually be doing.

Just remember the mantra- change is constant and access your allies to assist you to navigate through your career.

According to the Foundation for Young Australian's, the world of work will look vastly different to the world of work you currently experience. Robotics, automation, artificial intelligence, working remotely, and increase in digital work...many things will change - even within the next 10 years.

According to their recent New Work Smarts report, you can expect the following to occur by 2030:

- Automation and globalization will change what we do in every job.
- Within the next 10 years, many jobs will no longer exist
- Workers will spend 100% more time solving problems, 30% more time learning and 77% more time using STEM skills (science, technology, maths, engineering) than the same jobs demand now.
- Workers will spend more time getting value out of technology and use more digital skills (e.g., updating websites)
- Workers will be more flexible and independent in the workplace.
- With globalization, more workers will collaborate with people around the world.
- Workers will spend less time on routine and manual tasks due to automation, and more time focused on people, solving strategic problems and thinking creatively.
- Teenagers can expect to work for an average of 17 employers over their lifetime across 5 different careers.

VOCATIONAL & HIGHER EDUCATION NEWS

Huge demand for bilingual law graduates: Top tier employers such as Westpac, and PricewaterhouseCoopers, are increasingly calling for Asia literate graduates to meet the growing demand for global talent in the Asian century. Bilingual law graduates are in short supply and as a result, are far more employable.

Reports from online Australian publication 'Lawyers Weekly' suggest that, if law graduates want to gain a competitive edge over their peers, the best way to get ahead is by combining their law degree with an Asian Language. The following two courses are examples of how you can combine an Asian language with a Law degree.

- Australia National University: Bachelor of Asian Studies/Bachelor of Laws (Honours), <http://bit.ly/1Lhe3GO>
- La Trobe University: Bachelor of Arts (majoring in a language such as Chinese or Japanese)/ Bachelor of Laws, <http://bit.ly/22jxauG>
